DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ogasawara et al. (US 5,907,348).
3. Ogasawara et al. (...348) disclose a fixing apparatus, comprising: a heating member (21) for heating an unfixed image on a recording material; heating means (22) for heating the heating member, detection means for detecting a temperature of the heating member (22e); electric power supply means for supplying an electric power to the heating means on the basis of a detection result of the detection means (23); and electric power change means (10) for changing the electric power supplied to the heating means, wherein when an image formed on a recording material is formed of toners of a plurality of colors, the electric power change means increases the electric power supplied to the heating means, compared with a case where the image formed on the recording material is formed of a single color (col. 8, lines 56-59; and col. 26, lines 47-52).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claim 19 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Okabayashi (US 5,794,096) in view of Ogasawara et al. (US 5,907,348).

6. Okabayashi (...096) discloses a fixing apparatus comprising: a magnetic flux generation means (3) for generating a magnetic flux; a heat generating member (1) for generating heat by the magnetic flux generated by the magnetic flux generating means to heat an unfixed image on a recording material (col. 6, lines 1-25; and col. 7, lines 15-21); detection means (6) for detecting a temperature of the heat generating member; and electric power supply means for supplying an electric power to the magnetic flux generation means on the basis of a detection result of the detection means (col. 7, lines 1-11). However, Okabayashi (...096) do not disclose the claimed electric power change means. Ogasawara et al. (...348) disclose a fixing apparatus including an electric power change means (10) for changing the electric power supplied to a heating means, wherein when an image formed on a recording material is formed of toners of a plurality of colors, the electric power change means increases the electric power supplied to the heating means, compared with a case where the image formed on the recording material is formed of a single color (col. 8, lines 56-59; and col. 26, lines 47-52). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have the claimed electric power change means, as disclosed by Ogasawara et al. (...348), since such an electric power change means is well known in the art to change power depending upon the formation of a single color image or a multiple color image.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 2 and 13 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 19 and 20 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Final Rejection

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Art Unit: 2852
